

A man and a woman are playing pickleball on an outdoor court. The man, on the right, is wearing a teal shirt, black shorts, an orange cap, and sunglasses. He is in a low, athletic stance, reaching forward with his paddle to hit a yellow pickleball. The woman, on the left, is wearing an orange shirt, black shorts, a white cap, and sunglasses. She is also in a low stance, ready to receive the ball. In the background, another player in an orange shirt is visible, and the court is surrounded by trees and a clear blue sky. The text "WELCOME TO Heritage Hills Pickleball" is overlaid in the center, with "Heritage Hills" in a larger font. Below it, the tagline "Your Community. Your Court. Your Game." is written in a smaller, italicized font.
